Atlanta Black Gay Pride Event Proposal

Introduction:

T. I. L.- (Together In Love) is a social group committed to the celebration of African American gay and lesbian relationships.

Event Details:

We are proposing two events/venues dedicated to couples/relationships:

(1) A couples forum where various subjects are discussed that pertain to our community/ relationships. Hosted by Joyce Littel- Radio Personality for V-103.3 FM
Length- 1 hour
Event Title, date, time, and location- TBD

(2) Newlywed Game- The Gay Version. Our own version of the 1970's hit game where (4) couples have FUN & find out how much they really know their boyfriend/lover/partner. Hosted by Ms. Sophia McIntosh- Well known Atlanta Entertainer and Host.
Length- Two games for 30-minutes each. First game is with pre-selected couples, next game through random selection from audience.

Date, time, length, and location- TBD

Goals and Objectives:

Our objective is to provide opportunities during PRIDE for people of color in committed relationships to meet and socialize with other couples. Spend quality time celebrating our relationships.

Expertise:

The members of T.I.L. have numerous years of experience in event planning for diverse markets. Along with some of us being members of the National Gay/Lesbian Taskforce, we have all had "life experience" which benefits our connection to this area.
